AT CASTLE CRAIGARD

Welcome to Castle Craigard, where modern comfort meets traditional elegance - offering a unique Scottish experience for couples looking for an exclusive-use venue.

The picturesque views over Loch Goil and the dramatic mountains of the surrounding estate make for the most spectacular and memorable backdrop to your wedding.

Newly owned and managed by Emma Crowe, professional wedding planner and founder of White Heather Events, you can relax knowing you have access to the best possible planning support and on the day co-ordination.

Suitable for small and intimate weddings and elopements for up to 24 guests.

Choice of outdoor ceremony options including loch-side. Beautiful historic chapel for indoor ceremonies and dining.

Please enquire about options to use other local event spaces for a larger evening reception.

THE SMALL PRINT IN BIG

Access to accommodation is for residents, wedding guests and suppliers only.

On days other than the wedding day, only guests staying onsite are allowed to dine at the castle on a self-catering basis. If you wish to extend celebrations and include guests staying offsite or catering / other suppliers on days other than the wedding day, this must be discussed and agreed in advance and additional charges apply.

Because of the castle's antique furniture pets are not generally allowed. Some well behaved pets may be welcomed by exception subject to prior agreement and additional cleaning charges.

Wedding contract and terms and conditions are applicable to confirm booking.

Viewings available by appointment all year round.
